Dear Ms. Kaplan-Mulholland:

We're living in challenging and uncertain times. Yet, I am humbled, once more, by the generosity of our donor community, and how quickly our partners and people like you have mobilized to support SickKids patients and staff in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. Thank you for your gift-in-kind of 500 washable face coverings. Your donation will help protect our frontline staff during this crisis.

At SickKids Foundation, our immediate priority is to help our Hospital be as nimble and effective as possible in the response to COVID-19, while keeping patients, families, and staff safe and well. Donor support like yours is key to this effort. When we move beyond this crisis, we'll approach the challenge of building the new SickKids with renewed urgency, buoyed by how our community of big-hearted supporters and generous donors helped us get through.

Your support of SickKids is more important to us than ever. Our heartfelt thanks to you for reaching out and making a difference.

Best wishes to you, your family, and the people you love for good health and safety.

Sincerely,

Ted Garrard, C.M.
